

Notice to all DEDL students:

With the implementation of the Education Major, the DEDL courses and the applied research courses for the “old” curricula (i.e., any doctoral level course with a prefix of “EDL” or “ARO”) will be phased out. All students in the DEDL program must complete their EDL and ARO courses during or prior to the semesters listed below:

Fall 2005	Winter 2006	Summer 2006
EDL 9472 – Professional Learning Communities		EDL 8431 – School Finance EDL 8432 – School Policy EDL 8434 – School Law
Fall 2006	Winter 2007	Summer 2007
EDL 8441 – Leadership and Change EDL 8442 – Ethics & Social Responsibility EDL 8443 – Leadership Communication: Theory & Practice EDL 8472 – Human Resource Development ARO 8411 – Research Design & Methods ARO 8413 – Program Evaluation & Policy Analysis	EDL 8301 – Critical Issues and Trends in Exceptional Student Education Administration EDL 8302 – Legal Information for Educators EDL 8304 – Technology Trends and Issues EDL 8307 – Leading and Managing Systems EDL 8308 – Leading a Learning Organization ARO 8412 – Statistical Methods	EDL 9480 – Reflection and Vision Portfolio ARO 8414 – Measurement, Testing, and Assessment ARO 8415 – Survey Research ARO 8416 – Qualitative Research

You should plan your academic program with the above timelines in mind. However, although the above courses will be eliminated, students who do not complete the above courses will be given the opportunity to complete new EDD and ARC courses to complete their doctoral studies.

Note: This announcement does not apply to students who began their doctoral studies during the fall 2005 semester and does not apply to EDD and ARC courses.
